A screenshot of the Mediatheque search interface. The search term 'Palmyra' is entered in the search box. Below the search box, there are buttons for 'Q Search', 'Reset', and 'Q Advanced search'. The search results are displayed as a grid of four images, each with a caption: 'Saint-Eustache Church, Paris, 2016'. The images show different parts of the church: a stained glass window, a relief sculpture, another stained glass window, and the interior of the church.

The screenshot shows the top section of the ICOMOS website. On the left, the ICOMOS logo is displayed in green, with the text 'international council on monuments and sites' below it. To the right of the logo, the navigation menu includes links for 'Log in', 'Register', 'Get Involved', 'Contact us', 'FR', and 'EN'. The 'Log in' link is circled in red. Below the navigation menu is a search bar with the placeholder text 'Search ...'. Underneath the search bar are social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, LinkedIn, and RSS. A horizontal banner of various cultural heritage images follows, including a mosaic, a traditional Chinese building, a mud-brick tower, an archaeologist at work, a terraced field, a classical temple, a modern building, a domed church, and a person painting. At the bottom, a dark green navigation bar contains the following menu items: 'Home', 'About ICOMOS', 'What we do', 'Network', 'Get Involved', and 'Support Us'.
